Bridging the Gap: Understanding How to Bring Technology into the Leadership Team

Panelists:

Subtitle

Dave Wanser, Ph.D.Co-Director, Center for Sustainable Health & Care JBS International
Steve LaFleur, Chief Information Officer, Grand Lake Mental Health Center, Inc., OK
Wes Williams, Ph.D., VP & Chief Information Officer, Mental Health Center of Denver, CO
Ravi Ganesan, President, Core Solutions, Inc., PA (Moderator)

Agenda

- Brief Introductions
- The Technology Leadership Challenge
- Panel Discussions
- Q&A

Technology Leadership

- Leadership goes by different titles – CIO, CTO etc.
- Key Attributes
  - Focus on strategic issues
  - Budget
  - Authority
  - Participation with executive leadership
  - Plan and execute information strategy

Technology Leadership Challenge

- Scarcity of technology leaders
- Technical complexities of the new healthcare environment
  - Policy and program implementation
  - Depth and breath of data
  - Rapid pace of change
- Consumerism of healthcare

Understanding How to Bring Technology into the Leadership Team

Question # 1

What is the Role of the Behavioral Health CIO

Understanding How to Bring Technology into the Leadership Team

Question # 2

What are some of the key trends that CEOs and Technology leaders need to focus on?

CHALLENGES

Understanding How to Bring Technology into the Leadership Team

Question # 3

100% of Major Health Systems have Technology Leaders. Why are we lagging behind?

Understanding How to Bring Technology into the Leadership Team

Question # 4

We are a small to mid-size Community Mental Health Center. Why do we need a CIO?

SOLUTIONS

Understanding How to Bring Technology into the Leadership Team

Question # 5

What is the Role of the CIO in the Strategic Planning process?

Understanding How to Bring Technology into the Leadership Team

Question # 6

What are some best strategies for hiring CIOs?

Understanding How to Bring Technology into the Leadership Team

Question # 7

In the context of hospital systems, large primary care practices, FQHCs integrating behavioral health services, how can CMHCs stay competitive in this business environment?

Time To Tweet

#NatCon15

Tweet "I support behavioral health CIOs"

THANK YOU